ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Findings of Fact

[] A. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), § 3142(f)(1)].

[] a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4).

[] an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or death.

[] an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in 21 U.S.C. () § 801 et seq. () § 951 et seq. () § 955(a).

[] a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1) (A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.

[] (2) The offense described in finding 1 was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.

[] (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the (date of conviction) (release of the defendant from imprisonment) for the offense described in finding 1.

[] (4) Findings Nos. 1, 2, and 3 establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

☐ B. Findings of Fact [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)]

☐ (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, information submitted in the Pretrial Services

Agency report, and information at the detention hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 37 year old United States citizen who has lived in Houston, Texas most of his life. He has two sons, 14 and 6. He has regular contact with the 14 year old who lives in Houston but has not seen the 6 year old, who lives in Waco, since 2004. He is delinquent in child support for the 6 year old. Defendant was detained by TDCJ for most of 2005. When not incarcerated, he works for a janitorial service operated by his parents. He resided with his parents until arrested in March 2006 on state charges for the current offense.
2. Defendant admits a history of drug use.
3. Defendant has a lengthy criminal history, including prior convictions for unlawfully carrying a weapon, evading arrest, possession of illegal drugs, and assault on his wife. In 1991, he was convicted on 6 counts of aggravated robbery with a deadly weapon. His history includes committing crimes while on parole.
4. Defendant is currently charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2). He is facing a penalty of not less than 15 years in prison pursuant to the Career Criminal Act, 18 U.S.C. § 924(e).
5. At the time of his arrest, defendant was in the same residence as three other individuals who were in the possession of firearms and narcotics.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on November 3, 2006.
